requested that the Firm legal services to the Debtors, and the Firm has consented to provide such services (the “Services”).

3. The Services include, but are not limited to, the following: legal services related to defense of personal injury claims, property damage claims and other tort claims arising out of the Debtor’s retail business.

4. The Firm currently represents several entities that are parties in interest in these Chapter 11 cases, including landlords of the Debtors, on matters that are unrelated to the Services the Firm has provided and may continue to provide to the Debtors. In each instance, the Firm has (i) advised the Debtors or the representation; and (ii) advised the party in interest of the Firm’s ongoing relationship with the Debtors. Each party in interest has consented to the representation and Sears Holding Company does not have any objection to that representation so long as it is not adverse to the work for which approval as an Ordinary Course Counsel is being sought. The Firm thus believes that its representation of these parties in interest is not adverse to the Debtors or their estates with respect to the matters for which the Firm is to be employed.

5. As part of its customary practice, the Firm is retained in cases, proceedings, and transactions involving many different parties, some of whom may represent or be claimants or employees of the Debtors, or other parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases. Except as described above, the Firm does not perform services for any such person in connection with these chapter 11 cases. In addition, the Firm does not have any relationship with any such person, such person’s attorneys, or such person’s accountants that would be adverse to the Debtors or their estates with respect to the matters on which the Firm is to be retained.

6. Neither I, nor any principal of, or professional employed by the Firm has agreed to share or will share any portion of the compensation to be received from the Debtors with any other person other than principals and regular employees of the Firm.

7. Neither I nor any principal of, or professional employed by the Firm, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents any interest materially adverse to the Debtors or their estates with respect to the matters on which the Firm is to be retained.

8. As of the commencement of this chapter 11 case, the Debtors owed the Firm $37,372.12 in respect of prepetition services rendered to the Debtors.

9. The Firm is conducting further inquiries regarding its retention by any creditors of the Debtors, and upon conclusion of this inquiry, or at any time during the period of its employment, if the Firm should discover any facts bearing on the matters described herein, the Firm will supplement the information contained in this Affidavit.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this Affidavit and Disclosure Statement was executed on January 9, 2019, at Syracuse, New York.
